

Third Sunday of Pentecost
June 22, 2014

A Meditation before Worship

Christians have no business thinking that the good life consists mainly in not doing bad things.
We have no business thinking that to do evil in this world
you have to be a Bengal tiger, when, in fact, it is enough to be a tame tabby
—a nice person but not a good one.
In short, Pentecost makes it clear that nothing is so fatal to Christianity
as indifference.

(based Psalm 105)

Maggie Fleming

Leader: Enter into this time of worship, giving thanks to God!

All: With hearts rejoicing, we want to tell all the world
what God has done for us.

Leader: Call on the Holy One.
Seek the Holy Presence, a Presence to quiet your soul.

All: In this Holy Presence, we find strength for the journey.

Leader: Be reminded of God’s covenant with you.

All: We remember God’s promises to us.

Leader: Be reminded of your covenant with your God.

All: We remember our promises to God.

Leader: Be reminded of how Spirit is moving wonderfully, and wildly, in our world.

All: Spirit, move here, in this place!
Call us, again, to be disciples of the Living Christ.
Come, Holy Spirit, Come!

*HYMN # 434 “Today We Are Called to Be Disciples”

COMMUNITY PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Maggie Fleming

We want to fill this sanctuary with people, and we know which people we want. Holy God, expand our hopes and our vision. We have several thoughts of how to bring them in. Living Christ, give us more creative imaginations. We have several ideas about the path we should take. Moving Spirit, lure us unto your path for us, teach us to follow, take us on a journey with you.
