Interim Director, Fort Street Chorale

Fort Street Presbyterian Church is seeking an Interim Conductor for the Fort Street Chorale for its December 2019 performances of Handel's Messiah. The Interim Conductor will rehearse the Chorale on Thursday evenings, beginning in September 2019, in preparation for two performances to take place December 7 and 8, at 3:00 p.m. The Interim Conductor will work closely with the Chorale Council and church staff to coordinate planning and logistics.

Interested applicants are requested to submit their résumé and the names and contact information [(E-mail and USPS addresses, telephone number(s)] of three references to choraleconductor@fortstreet.org before April 22, 2019.

Candidates will be interviewed at the end of April, with auditions for finalists with the Chorale to be held on the evening of Thursday, May 16, 2019. A MM or DMA degree in conducting, or equivalent degree/experience, is expected. The position begins in mid-September. More information, including a job description, may be found at fortstreet.org/openings.
