Come experience setting a table. Prepare yourself to break bread in a way that breaks down barriers. As Jesus knew the power of sitting at table with others, we will explore the power of table fellowship to cross racial divides. Congregational leaders will reflect on how the work of racial justice is rooted in the Gospel story and be challenged to build real relationships that transform our lives and our congregations. Register at: <https://events.ticketprinting.com/event/Table-Setters-Workshop-32765>.

*Note this will be a 2-part workshop; please plan to attend both dates for the best outcome!
