Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah

Prayer of Confession

God, we come to you too often only when we are troubled or desperate, demanding comfortable magic for our immediate problems and assuming that what we can see is exactly what you, also, see. We clamor for instant fixes and we bargain for an intervention based on our human wants and desires. We too often forget our own short-sightedness or our need to be still and listen for greater wisdom and patience, and to envision new and unexpected solutions. Help us to remember that we are deeply bound in community and that we have the power to build that community to help it flourish, not in sudden miraculous leaps but in small steps of faithful effort. Forgive us for our noise and clamor and impatience for a future that will be revealed only in your own good time. Amen.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise God, all creatures here below;

Prayers of the People & The Lord's Prayer

Tim Moran

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
